Information and services

The website presents our services, projects, publications and events. It allows you to submit enquiries and, when available, register for events and explore projects through recommendations assisted by artificial intelligence.

Collaboration proposals, prices, scope and contractual terms are agreed individually. An enquiry or a recommendation from the search tool does not in itself constitute a contract, a quotation or a guarantee of results. Any specific terms for an event will be provided, where applicable, alongside registration.

Using the website

Use the website lawfully and respectfully. Do not introduce malicious code, attempt to access restricted areas or use the forms to impersonate others, send spam or harm other people.

Provide only the data needed for your request and information you may lawfully disclose. Avoid including confidential information, sensitive data or third parties' personal data in free-text fields, particularly in AI tools.

Intellectual and industrial property

The texts, images, videos, designs, trade marks and other elements of this website may be protected by rights belonging to Artefacto or their respective owners. Viewing them does not transfer any rights of exploitation.

You may use the content to browse the website in accordance with its purpose. Any reproduction, distribution, adaptation or communication to the public beyond uses permitted by law requires authorisation from the relevant rights holder. The presence of third-party trade marks and projects does not imply any assignment of their rights.

AI tools and availability

Automated recommendations select published projects and may include errors in relevance or return no results. You can browse the catalogue and contact our team without using the AI search tool. Please also consult our AI transparency information.

We work to keep the website available and its information up to date. Interruptions, changes or errors may occur; you can report them to hola@artefacto-studio.com. Liability will be determined in accordance with applicable law.

Links to other websites

The website may include links to third-party websites. Their content and practices are governed by their own terms and policies. Please report any link you consider unlawful or harmful so that we can examine it and take appropriate action.

Privacy and cookies

The privacy policy explains how personal data is processed. The cookies policy details storage on your device and the management of optional technologies. Browsing the website does not amount to consent to optional processing or subscription to commercial communications.

Applicable law and changes

These terms are interpreted in accordance with Spanish law and applicable European Union law. Any dispute will be submitted to the bodies with jurisdiction under the law, with due regard for mandatory consumer protections.

We may update this notice when the website or applicable obligations change. The date shown identifies this version; changes do not remove rights or replace any consent that must be obtained again.
